"MEGHAN Markle" has been pictured viciously brawling with "Kate Middleton" including kicking her and pulling her hair – but is all as it seems?

Comical spoof photos have emerged of lookalikes to the duchesses engaging in a "violent fight", to poke fun at the alleged royal tensions at Kensington Palace.

The hilarious pictures were snapped by spoof photographer Alison Jackson - who has an upcoming show Double Take at the Leicester Square Theatre - who imagined what really goes on at the palace when the royal women have stopped smiling for the crowds.

The series includes "Meghan" yanking the fake Kate's perfectly blow-dried locks and mock "shoving" the royal mum while they are both dressed in their fancy outfits.

The comical shots even include the lookalike Meghan kicking "Kate" squarely in the leg with her stiletto heel, before dragging her along the polished "palace floor" by her hair.
